

MUSIC TEACHERS OF HYDE PARK
STUDENT RECITALS 2008-09
Blackstone Library Saturday Student Recitals at 11:00 AM
Montgomery Place Sunday Student Recitals at 7:00 PM

Students need opportunities to practice performing just as they learn to practice pieces at home. These recitals have an informal atmosphere but students are expected to have pieces memorized and be prepared to bow after playing. Dress code is informal for these recitals.

Students should plan on staying from 11:00 a.m. -12:00 NOON (BL) and 7:00-8:00 p.m. (MP). Family and friends are invited. Admission is free and open to the public.

Due to the popularity of the recitals get your information in early before they fill up so your student won't be disappointed. There is room for a maximum of 15 students on each recital; this is necessary so we don't violate the fire code with too many people.

PERFORMATHON 2009, TBA

Contact: Donna Lee Fackenthal dfackent@bsd.uchicago.edu

The annual Performathon is held at the end of the year and raises money for a worthwhile cause. In the past the recipients have been the Hyde Park-Kenwood Interfaith Council Hunger Programs, and Habitat for Humanity. Teachers reserve a time slot for their students, or may participate in a shared time. Many teachers use this as their year-end recital for family and friends. Students have sign-up sheets for people who want to donate money. These people may also attend the recital. Names of children with their school are published in the Hyde Park Herald to acknowledge them.

This year we are raising money for the Hyde Park/Kenwood Interfaith Council Hunger Programs.
